

Greek Islands: Crete & Santorini

7-Night Wine Experience GR307

Greek Isles of Crete & Santorini - A Paradise for Wine Lovers

Join us as we take you to two Greek islands known for their stunning beauty and outstanding wines. Crete is the 5th largest island of the Mediterranean and produces top quality wines. After our stay in charming Chania with visits to nearby wineries we'll venture to the other side for our stay in Heraklion. We'll be sure to visit the Archeological Museum, the world's finest collection of Minoan art. As for Santorini, words alone cannot do justice to the breathtaking views. And, its wines, especially the Assyrtico, will make you swoon.

You may wish to join our other two preceding Greek Odyssey tours: Northern Greece (GR305, May 19-27) and Central Greece & Peloponnese (GR306, May 27-June 2).

“I enjoyed Greece & Turkey. Just to see the Acropolis was a thrill of a lifetime, not to mention the islands, ruins, history, ancient civilizations, the...wines and vineyards too....4 stars! One of the best trips.”

- Judge William Riccitelli (aka Dr Vino), Rhode Island
