

Sicily Wine Tour

8-Night Food & Wine Experience

An Island of Wine, Cuisine and History

Just off the tip of Southern Italy, the Mediterranean's largest island, Sicily, is one that could be its own country. Although separate from the Italian mainland, Sicilians have mastered the art of "la dolce vita" as much as anyone else in Italy, with world-class wines, unique cuisine with hints of Arab, Greek and Spanish influences, arts, culture and Greek ruins that rival anything found in the world. In fact, Palermo, was named Italy's Capital of Culture for 2018.

On this 8 night/9 day Sicilian wine vacation, you'll cover the entire circumference of the island, from Palermo, to Marsala, Menfi then Agrigento and ending in mystical Taormina, where we will also visit Mt. Etna. When the tour ends on Oct. 16, you'll return home with a love of Sicily and its inhabitants or you may opt to pair this with our tour of the Aeolian Islands.
